The Call to Worship (responsive)

LEADER: In baptism we enter a whole new life, we join with the witnesses of all generations.

PEOPLE: We are God's new creation by water and the word.

LEADER: In baptism we claim a new identity, we become part of a family where all are loved.

PEOPLE: We have one charter of salvation, one Lord, one faith, one birth.

LEADER: And so, we gather with fellow believers around the world to worship and to claim our unity as followers of Jesus.

PEOPLE: In Christ there is no east or west, in him no pride of birth.

LEADER: We feast at the Lord's table, none of us being worthy of our own accord, but all of us being welcomed by the grace of God.

PEOPLE: We share a common cup and partake one holy food.

LEADER: The Church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord.

PEOPLE: We offer our heart's true worship to the God who gives us this foundation and makes of us a church.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP: Today we celebrate Pentecost Sunday, recalling the gifting of the Spirit upon early believers as told in the reading from Acts 2. It is also the day on which we celebrate the birth of the Church. We have much to celebrate today as we witness the baptism of Emily Hoover, as we gather around the Lord's Table, and as we hear from guest proclaimer Rev. Lynn Brinkley of Campbell University Divinity School. The white stoles worn throughout Eastertide have been replaced with red stoles with the descending dove, serving as reminders of the fire and Spirit on the Day of Pentecost. We also offer words of thanks to Anna Moxley, our church music intern, as she embarks on a new path in her divinity school journey. How blessed we have been in these past two years by Anna's gentle spirit and her many talents.

THOSE WHO ARE VISITING are invited to the Gathering Room after worship to receive information about the church. Use the door to the left of the pulpit; church members will greet you.

DEACON ON CALL is Carl Bailey. A 28-year member, Carl drives for the FBC Bus Ministry, serves on the Transportation Committee, volunteers for the Afterschool Backpack Buddies program, and in the coming year will serve as President of the Thirty-Niners senior adult group.
